

Equal Opportunity Discrimination Complaint Policy and Procedures

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 188 of the WIOA, and the implementing regulations at 29 CFR Part 38, prohibits exclusion of an individual from participation in, denial of the benefits of, discrimination in, or denial of employment in the administration of or in connection with any programs and activities funded or otherwise financially assisted in whole or in part under Title I of WIOA because of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, gender identity, and transgender status), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability or political affiliation or belief, citizenship status, or participation in any WIOA Title-I financially-assisted program or activity.

The WIOA nondiscrimination regulations prohibit discrimination in all aspects of the administration, management, and operation of WIOA programs and activities. The State of West Virginia has adopted the following procedures for processing complaints alleging violations of the nondiscrimination and equal opportunity provisions in a Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) Title I-financially assisted program or activity.

DEFINITIONS

Beneficiary – Individual or individuals intended by Congress to receive aid, benefits, services, or training from a recipient of Federal financial assistance under a program or activity established by Federal statute.

CRC – U.S. Department of Labor / Office of Assistant Secretary for Administration and Management / Civil Rights Center.

Complainant – Individual filing discrimination complaint based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability, political affiliation or belief, and for beneficiaries only, on the basis of either citizenship as a lawfully admitted immigrant authorized to work in the United States, or participation in a WIOA Title I financially assistance program or activity.

Federal Financial Assistance – Refers to more than just dollars and cents. It can include nonmonetary forms of assistance, such as the provision of personnel at the grantmaking/recipient agency's expense, or the grant or donation of property, among other things.

Mediation – A process of alternative dispute resolution whereby negotiation of issues are facilitated by a neutral party. It is a voluntary and confidential process, and can result in a binding agreement.

Recipient – Any entity that receives financial assistance under WIOA Title I, either directly from the US Department of Labor or through the Governor or another recipient. American Job Center Partners are considered recipients to the extent that they participate in the one-stop delivery system.

Respondent – A grant applicant or recipient against whom a complaint has been filed under the nondiscrimination and equal opportunity provisions of WIOA.

BACKGROUND

This policy is intended to ensure that WorkForce West Virginia, the Workforce Development Boards (WDBs), and other grant recipients/program providers implement complaint policies and procedures in compliance with guidelines provided by the Director, Civil Rights Center, U.S. Department of Labor (CRC), regarding the nondiscrimination/equal opportunity provisions of Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

Section 188 of the WIOA, and the implementing regulations at 29 CFR Part 38, prohibits discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, gender identity, and transgender status), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability or political affiliation or belief, citizenship status, or participation in any WIOA Title-I financially-assisted program or activity.

Each Workforce Development Area has designated a Local Equal Opportunity Officer who is responsible for adopting and publishing discrimination complaint policies and procedures (already established by the state-level Equal Opportunity Officer), and ensuring compliance with those procedures. A recipient/program provider must provide initial and continued notice that it does not discriminate on any prohibited ground. A copy of the "Equal Opportunity is the Law" notice is provided to each participant and made a part of each participant's file per the regulations. If a complaint is filed, a copy of this Equal Opportunity (EO) Discrimination Complaint Processing Policy and Procedures is to be provided to the complainant, along with a copy of the "Equal Opportunity is the law" notice.

POLICY AND PROCEDURE

Discrimination Complaint and Filing

All grant recipients/program providers under Title I of WIOA are responsible for complying with the discrimination complaint procedures consistent with 29 CFR Part 38, as outlined in this policy: Any person who believes that he or she, or any specific class of individuals, has been or is being subjected to discrimination on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth, or related medical conditions, gender identity, and transgender status), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, political affiliation or belief, and for beneficiaries only, citizenship or participation in WIOA Title I, has the right to file a complaint within one hundred and eighty (180) calendar days of the alleged discrimination. The filing period may be extended for good cause in some limited circumstances. However, only the Director of CRC may extend the filing time.

Receipt of Complaint

A complainant must file a complaint within 180 days of the alleged act(s) of discrimination or retaliation. Complaints can be accepted by an employee in a WorkForce West Virginia One-Stop Center, or the EO Officer of a local Workforce Development Board. The employee or local WDB EO Officer will immediately accept the complaint and forward the complaint to the WorkForce West Virginia EO Officer.

The complainant may file with WorkForce West Virginia or the Department of Labor, Director, Civil Rights Center (Federal). Filing a complaint with WorkForce West Virginia does not affect a complainant's right to file a complaint with the Civil Rights Center if he or she is not satisfied with the resolution provided by WorkForce West Virginia. The WorkForce West Virginia EO Officer is responsible for determining if the complaint is covered by 29 CFR Part 38, and for resolving jurisdictional issues, if any. Complaints may be submitted to:

Forms Used to File Complaint

State - An individual may file a complaint at the state level by completing and submitting the WorkForce West Virginia Discrimination Complaint Form which may be obtained from the WorkForce West Virginia Equal Opportunity office, or local Workforce Development Board. Complaint information is also available on the WorkForce West Virginia website at <http://workforcewv.org/about-us/equal-opportunity/related-links.html>.

Federal – Complainant may file a complaint with the Civil Rights Center by completing and submitting the “Civil Rights Center’s Complaint Information and Privacy Act Consent” forms. Forms may be obtained from the WorkForce West Virginia EO Officer or from the CRC. Forms are available electronically on CRC’s website, and in hard copy via postal mail upon request. Hard copy complaints may be sent to the CRC at the address listed in Section C of these procedures. Electronic forms can be found on the CRC’s website at: <https://www.dol.gov/oasam/programs/crc/DL1-2014A-Rev-April-2011.pdf>. (Reference 29 CFR Part 38.70)

Complaints must be filed in writing, either electronically or in hard copy. To be accepted as a complaint, the following information must be provided: (Reference 29 CFR Part 38.70)

- The complainant’s name, mailing address, e-mail address, if available, and telephone number (or another means of contacting the complainant).
- The identity of the respondent (the individual or entity that the complainant alleged is responsible for the discrimination).
- A description of the complainant’s allegations. This description must include enough detail to allow the WorkForce West Virginia or the US DOL Civil Rights Center to decide whether:
- WorkForce West Virginia or the Civil Rights Center, as applicable, has jurisdiction over the complaint;
- The complaint was timely filed (within 180 days);
- The complaint has merit; in other words, whether the complainant’s allegations, if true, would violate any of the nondiscrimination and equal opportunity provisions of Section 188 of the WIOA. Completing and submitting either WorkForce West Virginia or the Civil Rights Center Discrimination Complaint Form may provide the information required by this paragraph.
- The provision of the complainant’s written or electronic signature, or the written or electronic signature of the complainant’s authorized representative.

State Level Complaint Processing – A complainant must file a complaint within 180 days of the alleged act(s) of discrimination or retaliation. The complaint may be filed with either the recipient, WorkForce West Virginia (state) or the Department of Labor, Civil Rights Center (federal). WorkForce West Virginia is required by 29 CFR Part 38.72, to include the state complaint procedures, the Alternate Dispute Resolution (ADR) Mediation Election form, and the equal opportunity notice “Equal Opportunity is the Law”. WorkForce West Virginia has chosen mediation as the method of ADR to be used in the State of West Virginia. The complainant will be offered the option to participate in mediation or follow the customary state level complaint process. Any person electing to file at the state level shall allow WorkForce West Virginia 90 days from the date of receipt of complaint to process the complaint. (Reference 29 CFR Part 38.72)

If it is determined that WorkForce West Virginia does not have jurisdiction over a complaint, the complainant will immediately be notified in writing within five business days of making such determination. This Notice of Lack of Jurisdiction will include:

- A statement of the reasons for the determination.
- Notice that complainant has a right to file a complaint with the CRC within 30 days of the date on which the complainant receives the Notice of Lack of Jurisdiction

If WorkForce West Virginia does have jurisdiction, the WorkForce West Virginia EO Office will provide written notice to the complainant containing the following information:

- Acknowledgment that the complaint has been received.
- Notice that complainant has the right to be represented in complaint process.
- The equal opportunity notice, “Equal Opportunity is the Law”.
- Notice that the complainant has the right to request and receive, at no cost, auxiliary aids and services, language assistance services, and that the notice will be translated into non-English languages.

A written statement of the issue(s) raised provided to the complainant that includes the following information:

- A list of the issues raised in the complaint, and
- For each issue, a statement whether the recipient will accept the issue for investigation, or reject the issues and the reasons for rejection.
- A period for fact-finding or investigation of the circumstances underlying the complaint, which may take about 20 working days.
- A period during which the recipient attempts to resolve the complaint. The methods available to resolve the complaint must include alternative dispute resolution (ADR).

- A brochure explaining the mediation process will be attached. The option to mediate rests with the complainant. The complainant will be requested to notify the WorkForce West Virginia EO Officer within 5 days of receipt of the written notice if the complainant wishes to participate in mediation. If the complainant elects mediation, the processes outlined under Section I, Mediation, of these procedures will be followed.
- Notice that if the Notice of Final Action is issued during the 90-day period, and the complainant is dissatisfied with the decision, the complainant has a right to file a complaint with the Civil Rights Center, within 30 days of the date on which the complainant receives the Notice of Final Action.

Respondent will be notified that a complaint alleging discrimination has been filed and is being processed. A summary of the complaint and a notice that retaliation is against the law will be provided to respondent. The respondent will be also be notified if mediation has been chosen by the complainant as a means of resolution.

Mediation

Alternative dispute resolution (ADR) may be attempted any time after a written complaint has been filed with the recipient, but before the Notice of Final Action has been issued. The choice whether to use mediation or the customary investigative process rests with the complainant. If the complainant chooses mediation the respondent will be notified. WorkForce West Virginia mediation procedures are as follows:

If mediation is elected, the WorkForce West Virginia EO Officer will notify the mediator within 2 days of the receipt of the Mediation Election Form. The session will begin no later than 15 calendar days after the mediator is notified.

Parties will receive notice of where and when the mediation will be conducted.

Two (2) calendar days will be allowed for the mediation session to achieve a resolution. If the parties do not reach an agreement within the two-day mediation session, a notice will be issued within 15 calendar days from the end of the two-day mediation session, outlining the facts or circumstances relevant to the attempt to settle the issues. Notice will be given that the complaint has been referred for investigation.

If mediation was used successfully, a description of the resolution will be provided. A copy of the settlement agreement will be provided to the complainant and respondent within 15 days from the conclusion of the mediation session and the agreement will contain the following:

- Signatures of mediator, complainant and respondent.
- Description of the settlement of the issues.
- Future responsibilities of both parties.

- Notice of rights, to both complainant and respondent, that if either party to the agreement breaches the agreement, then the non-breaching party may file a complaint with the CRC within 30 days of the learning the agreement was breached.
- If the parties do not reach an agreement under mediation, the complaint will be referred for investigation.

Breach of Settlement Agreement

A party to any agreement reached under mediation may file a complaint with the Civil Rights Center in the event the agreement is breached.

The non-breaching party may file a complaint with the Civil Rights Center within 30 days of the date on which the non-breaching party learns of the alleged breach.

If the Civil Rights Center determines that the agreement has been breached, the complaint will be reinstated processed in accordance with the recipient's procedures. (29 CFR Part 38.72)

Notice of Final Action

A written Notice of Final Action will be provided to the complainant within 90 days of the date on which the complaint was filed. The notice will contain, for each issue raised in the complaint, a statement of either:

The recipient's decision on the issue and an explanation of the reasons underlying the decision; or

A description of the way the parties resolved the issue and

If the Notice of Final Action is issued during the 90-day period, and the complainant is dissatisfied with the decision, the complainant, or his or her representative, has a right to file a complaint with the Civil Rights Center within 30 days of the date on which the complainant receives the Notice of Final Action. Only the Director of the Civil Rights Center may extend the 30-day time limit for good cause shown. The complainant has the burden of proving, to the Director, Civil Rights Center, that the time limit should be extended.

If, by the end of the 90 days from the date on which the complainant filed the complaint, WorkForce West Virginia has not completed its processing of the complaint or failed to issue a Notice of Final Action, the complainant, or the complainant's representative, may file a complaint with the Civil Rights Center within 30 days of the expiration of the 90-day period. In other words the complaint must be filed with the Civil Rights Center within 120 days of the date on which WorkForce West Virginia received the complaint.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IS THE LAW

It is against the law for this recipient of Federal financial assistance to discriminate on the following bases:

Against any individual in the United States, on the basis of race, color, religion, sex (including pregnancy, childbirth and related medical conditions, sex stereotyping, transgender status, and gender identity), national origin (including limited English proficiency), age, disability, political affiliation or belief; OR,

Against any beneficiary of, applicant to, or participant in programs financially assisted under Title I of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), on the basis of the beneficiary's citizenship status or participation in any WIOA I-financially assisted program or activity.

The recipient must not discriminate in any of the following areas:

Deciding who will be admitted, or have access, to any WIOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity; providing opportunities in, or treating any person with regard to, such a program or activity; or making employment decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such program or activity; or making decisions in the administration of, or in connection with, such a program or activity. Recipients of federal financial assistance must take reasonable steps to ensure that communications with individuals with disabilities are as effective as communications with others. This means that, upon request and at no cost to the individual, recipients are required to provide appropriate auxiliary aids and services to qualified individuals with disabilities.

What to do if you believe you have experienced discrimination:

If you think that you have been subjected to discrimination under a WIOA Title I-financially assisted program or activity, you may file a complaint within 180 days from the date of the alleged violation with either;

If you file your complaint with the recipient, you must wait until either the recipient issues a written Notice of Final Action or until 90 days have passed (whichever is sooner), before filing with the CRC (see address above).

If the recipient does not give you a written Notice of Final Action within 90 days of the day on which you filed your complaint, you may file a complaint with the CRC before receiving that Notice. However, you must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the 90-day deadline (in other words, within 120 days after the day on which you filed your complaint with the recipient).

If the recipient does give you a written Notice of Final Action on your complaint, but you are dissatisfied with the decision or resolution, you may file a complaint with the CRC. You must file your CRC complaint within 30 days of the date on which you received the Notice of Final Action.

NOTICE ABOUT INVESTIGATORY USES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Two Federal laws govern personal information submitted to Federal agencies, including the Civil Rights Center (CRC): the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552), and the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. 552), or “FOIA.” Please read this description of how these laws apply to information connected with your complaint. After reading this notice, please sign and return the consent agreement printed on the back of this notice, along with your complaint form.

THE PRIVACY ACT protects individuals from misuse of personal information held by the Federal Government. The law applies to records that are kept and can be located by the individual’s name, social security number, or other personal identification system. Anyone who submits information to WorkForce West Virginia in connection with a discrimination complaint should know the following:

- WorkForce West Virginia has been authorized to investigate complaints of discrimination on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, and handicap, and in some programs on the basis of sex, religion, citizenship, and political affiliation or belief, in programs that receive Federal funds through the Department of Labor. WorkForce West Virginia is also authorized to conduct reviews of federally funded programs to assess their compliance with civil rights laws.
- Authorized personnel within the agency analyze information that WorkForce West Virginia collects. This information may include personnel or program participant records, and other personal information. WorkForce West Virginia staff may need to reveal some of the personal information to individuals outside the office in order to verify facts related to the complaint, or to discover new facts which will help WorkForce West Virginia to determine whether the law has been violated. Such information could include, for example, the physical condition or age of a complainant. WorkForce West Virginia may also have to reveal personal information to a person who submits a request for disclosure authorized by the Freedom of Information Act.
- Information submitted to WorkForce West Virginia may also be revealed to personnel outside of WorkForce West Virginia because it is necessary in order to complete enforcement proceedings against a program that WorkForce West Virginia finds to have violated the law or regulations. Such information could include, for example, the name, income, age, marital status or physical condition of the complainant.
- Any personal information you provide may be used only for the specific purpose for which it was requested. WorkForce West Virginia requests personal information only for the purpose of carrying out authorized activities to enforce, and determine compliance with, civil rights laws and regulations. WorkForce West Virginia will not release personal information to any person or organization unless the person who submitted the information gives written consent, or unless release is required by the Freedom of Information Act.

No law requires that a complainant reveal personal information to WorkForce West Virginia, and no action will be taken against a person who denies a request for personal information. However, if WorkForce West Virginia cannot obtain the information needed to fully investigate the allegations in the complaint, the case may be closed.

- Any person may ask for, and receive, copies of all personal materials WorkForce West Virginia keeps in his or her file for investigatory use.

AS A POLICY, WORKFORCE WEST VIRGINIA DOES NOT REVEAL NAMES AND OTHER IDENTIFYING INFORMATION ABOUT INDIVIDUALS, UNLESS IT IS NECESSARY TO COMPLETE INVESTIGATION OR ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES AGAINST A PROGRAM WHICH HAS VIOLATED THE LAW. WorkForce West Virginia never reveals to the program under investigation the identity of the person who filed the complaint, unless the complainant first gave written permission to do so.

THE FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) gives the public maximum access to Federal Government files and records. Persons can request, and receive, information from many types of records kept by the Government – not just materials that apply to them personally. WorkForce West Virginia must honor most requests for information submitted under FOIA, but there are exceptions:

- WorkForce West Virginia is usually not required to release information during an investigation or an enforcement proceeding if that release would limit WorkForce West Virginia’s ability to do its job effectively; and
- WorkForce West Virginia can refuse to disclose information if release would result in a “clearly unwarranted invasion” of a person’s privacy.

PLEASE READ AND SIGN SECTION A OR SECTION B OF THE CONSENT FORM.

Mediation as an Alternative Dispute Resolution Process

WorkForce West Virginia has been designated by the Governor of West Virginia as the agency to comply with Section 188 of the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) and its implementing regulations. In carrying out these duties WorkForce West Virginia conducts both compliance reviews and discrimination complaint investigations.

Mediation is an informal process that is offered as an alternative to the traditional investigative or litigation process. Mediation is a voluntary, strictly confidential, non-adversarial dispute resolution process or conference that allows people who have a dispute to come together to talk and decide for themselves how to end their dispute. The sessions are not tape-recorded or transcribed. Notes taken during the mediation are discarded. Mediation gives the parties the opportunity to discuss the issues raised in the allegation(s), clear up the misunderstandings, determine the underlying interests or concerns, find agreements and to reach a resolution. The decision to mediate is completely voluntary for the complainant. The mediator does not take sides or make decisions for people, but assists the parties in agreeing on a mutually acceptable resolution.

Mediation Election Form

I have read the information on the role of WorkForce West Virginia in the State of West Virginia equal opportunity and complaint resolution process under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) – including the offer of Mediation as an alternative to the formal complaint investigation procedure.

_____ YES, I elect to avail myself of the mediation option of complaint resolution. I agree to participate in the mediation efforts led by WorkForce West Virginia EO Office and to attempt to settle the issues in dispute between the respondent and me.

_____ NO, I elect not to use mediation as an alternative method of dispute resolution, and request that the formal complaint investigation process begin as soon as this form is received in WorkForce West Virginia EO Office.
