

EMPLOYERS

We can help.

YOUR ROAD TO SUCCESS STARTS HERE

2 Receive assistance with training & skills assessments

WorkForce West Virginia can help connect you with business services in your local community to meet and address a variety of immediate and long-term company needs, including access to available workforce training programs in your local community. We understand it is critical that your employees have the proper education and training required for the job. That's why the team at WorkForce West Virginia stands ready to help you navigate the education and training process.

Depending upon your specific workforce needs, we can help you determine the best education or training program, locate viable candidates to participate in training and even arrange on-the-job training for employees. Let's get started by learning more about workforce training programs available statewide.

Available programs

On-the-Job Training

On-the-Job Training (OJT) provides unique opportunities for participants to "learn as they earn." The employer benefits by being reimbursed for part of the participant's wages during the training period, while having the services of a full-time employee.
